ST CATHERINE OF SIENA CAROLINE SPRINGS

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world ablaze"

Friday 13th June 2025.

God Is Calling YOU—Really!

No matter where you are in your faith journey, one thing is certain: you are not here by accident. God is calling you—yes, you—to take a step closer to Him.

Can you relate to one of these?

- "I haven't really connected with God or my faith, but I'm curious and trying."
- "I come to Mass because it's part of my family routine."
- "I've had a real encounter with Jesus. He's my Lord, and I want to grow."
- "I know and love Jesus, and I want to help others know Him too."

Wherever you are, God wants to meet you there and lead you deeper.

If You're Just Beginning: You're Not Alone

If you're exploring faith or feeling unsure, know this: the desire you feel—even just to understand—is God gently inviting you forward. You don't need to have everything figured out. You just need to be open.

And you don't have to do it alone. Our parish is here to support you, walk with you, and help you discover that a relationship with Jesus is possible—and life-changing. If you're curious or searching, don't be afraid to reach out. Connect with me, someone you trust in the parish, or anyone who can walk with you as you take your next step toward faith.

If You're Already Following Jesus: It's Time to Bear Fruit

If you already believe in and follow Jesus, He is calling you to go even deeper. He didn't just call us to believe—He chose us to bear fruit that will last. That means not just staying busy, but staying close to Him: through daily prayer, Scripture, the Sacraments, and loving service. Jesus wants to work in and through you to bring healing, hope, and holiness to the world, starting with those around you.

A disciple is not just someone who believes in Jesus, but someone who actively follows Him, is changed by His love and truth, and takes part in His mission. That means living out the Gospel in everyday life: receiving the Sacraments regularly, praying and reading Scripture, serving others with generosity, and helping others come to know and follow Christ too.

Growing as Disciples: The Power of Small Groups

Jesus spent most of His time with a small group—the twelve apostles. He formed them deeply and sent them out to do the same. Small groups (4 to 10 people) are just as powerful today. They help us grow in faith, build real friendships, and support one another through life.

Many saints—like St. Peter, St. John Bosco, and St. John Paul II—began their missions by forming or joining small communities that multiplied. Whether you're new to faith or already leading others, a small group might be your next step.

Join the Mission With Us

At our recent Parish Leadership Summit, we asked: Where is God leading our parish? The answer was clear: toward deeper discipleship, stronger relationships, and greater spiritual fruit. Now we invite you to be part of that vision.

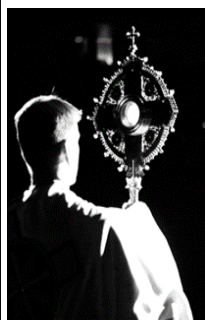

- Want to grow in your faith?
- Interested in joining—or starting—a small group?
- Looking for guidance, friendship, or your next step?

If something in your heart is stirring, don't ignore it. That's God calling.

Don't be afraid to say yes. Let's take the next step together.
